San Mateo County Court Commissioner Receives Service to Justice Award

Presiding Judge George A. Miram today announced that he has instituted an annual perpetual recognition award to be called the Presiding Judge's Service to Justice Award. According to Judge Miram "... it is the highest honor that I can bestow."

The recipient of the award, Commissioner Joseph Gruber, was recognized for his exemplary dedication and service to justice for over twenty-seven years as a court commissioner. Gruber was honored today at the court's annual holiday luncheon. Miram concluded at the presentation of the award by stating "Joe has always been there to offer sage advice and go the extra mile. He is a presiding judge's dream."
